

PYSSUM Inclusive Community Living (Preliminary Plan)

Appeal

Dear Friends,

Greetings from PYSSUM! Many of you have visited PYSSUM and many have not. A brief introduction will help you understand the context.

PYSSUM (Paramahansa Yogananda Society for Special Unfolding and Moulding) is a Non-profit Organisation working for the individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities in the areas of Early Intervention, Child Development, Wellness and Job Skill Training, and Special Education Training. We are located in Lucknow, the capital of the state of Uttar Pradesh, India.

We have tried our best to maintain the quality of our work imparting the holistic education and training founded on spiritual principles of Paramahansa Yogananda Ji.

Good News!!

After working intensely for 18 yrs in the development sector, PYSSUM functionaries have decided to expand and move to a space of their own from the present rented infrastructure. The infrastructure on the new land would grant our children and adults with special needs a space for truly holistic education and life skills training.

Total cost of the land - 180015 USD. Present Collection: 64650 USD, The target to be met: 115381 USD

We seek support from the friends of the cause and people who would appreciate coming forward to join our hand in laying firm foundation of a great institution.

PYSSUM family looks forward to your positive response to our cause.
